

Our Chemistry Is Undeniable

Framatome's Chemistry and Materials Center (CMC) is home to the industry's most innovative chemistry services, and your one-stop resource for materials testing and analysis.

The proof? We were just selected to support an industry-wide interlaboratory cross-check program.

Equipped with state-of-the-art technology, we can provide testing services ranging from routine monthly water chemistry monitoring analysis to contaminant materials analysis and commercial grade dedication.

Our technology, expertise and delivery, along with comprehensive laboratory support, means Framatome's CMC is undeniably the right mix for all your testing needs.

Power on. For the future of clean energy.
