N.S. SAVANNAH
LIABILITY WAIVER

The Maritime Administration welcomes you aboard the N.S. SAVANNAH. A safety briefing will be provided prior to your event. Please come to the ship prepared for this special environment; durable clothing and closed-toe shoes are required. The waiver below must be signed prior to vessel boarding. We appreciate your interest in N.S. SAVANNAH, the Maritime Administration and United States Merchant Marine.

"I am pleased to board N.S. SAVANNAH, moored at Pier 13, Canton Marine Terminal, and partake in this scheduled event. I agree to release and forever discharge the Maritime Administration, its employees, assignees, and agents from any and all liability, charges, claims, or causes of action, arising out of or in any way connected with my boarding and participation in the activity, or any related transportation or other visits. I acknowledge that the Maritime Administration reserves the right to video, photograph, or record any activity associated with this event. I further agree to indemnify and hold forever harmless the Maritime Administration, its employees, assignees, and agents from liability, damage claims, or causes of action made or brought by me or by anyone on behalf of me as a result of or in any way connected with my boarding, participation, or presence in this event. I am the parent or guardian responsible for the child(ren) listed below."

If visitor is under 18, a parent or guardian responsible shall sign below to indicate that the minor child or children named below are under their care and direct supervision.
