Invitation to Participate

On behalf of the American Nuclear Society and the World Council on Isotopes, I am pleased to extend this invitation to participate at the 8th International Conference on Isotopes (ICI) to be held at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, August 24-28, 2014.

ICI meetings and expos appeal to a global audience and have attracted over 1000 attendees. The 8th ICI program boasts more than 300 scientific/technical presentations in plenary, parallel, and poster sessions, plus additional panel and discussion sessions.

This unique opportunity to interact with colleagues and clients won't happen again until the 2017 ICI, so be sure to register early to secure a spot at this premier conference held at a world-class venue.
