Student Assistants will be paid $25 for each four (4) hour period they spend assisting a Session Chairperson or helping in other areas. The maximum payment to any student will be $100.00. Payment to student assistants (based on completed session attendance forms) will be made after the meeting by check mailed from ANS headquarters. Complimentary meeting registration is provided for Student Assistants. If you are accepted to work as a student assistant, do not register for the meeting. To serve as a Student Assistant, you must be a paid member of the ANS National and you must also attend the Student Assistants Training Session on Sunday, June 8, 2008, 4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. in the Sleeping Beauty Pavilion. Student assistants must attend the training session to receive their meeting badge and session assignments.
NO EXCEPTIONS!

The deadline to submit your application for the Student Assistant Program is Friday, May 16, 2008 or when the student limit for the program has been reached, whichever occurs first. Applications received after this deadline may be accepted at the discretion of the Student Program Chair. Please note that all student members who do not work at the meeting must pay the appropriate student registration fee to attend the meeting.

Visit the website at <http://www.ans.org/meetings> and follow the links to the 2008 ANS Annual Meeting for more information on the meeting and the student program.
